

COMMUNITY COMING EVENTS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

- 02/20 (Today) Holy Mass at 10am. Reading of the Catechism at the end of the Mass. Coffee hour after the Mass in the church hall as usual.
- 02/26 (Saturday) Polish Food Sale 9am-12pm.
- 02/27 (Sunday) Holy Mass at 10am. No Mass intention so far!

- We would like to remind you about the possibility to offer a Holy Mass in your own, particular intention! Take one of the envelopes from the back of the Church, write down your intention and return it to Fr. Adam. Have a blessed week!

CHURCH NEWS

- Two new Hand Sanitizing Stations were purchased last week—one for the church and one for the church hall.
- Solar panels installation on the church roof was finished last week and the system was inspected by the town and fire marshal. Now, we have to wait for an official approval to start using the solar energy.
- Last week a big project of removing lead paints in the rectory (2nd floor) has started. It will continue this week as well.
- Upcoming birthdays: RENA GERVAIS (02/25), EDWARD MAKLES (02/26). Happy birthday!

If you have any information for the „Church News Column”, please inform Fr. Adam by email or phone no later than Friday afternoon.

HOLY MASS

. 10 am

MASS INTENTIONS

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention, you must stop by the Parish Office or the sacristy in the Church before/after Sunday mass. Masses can be said for a deceased person or as a special intention for the living. You may reserve a Sunday of your choice, and your intention will be published in the parish bulletin.

We encourage you to offer a Mass on the occasion of a birthday, anniversary or special personal (family) need.

READING 1

1 SM 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

A reading from the First Book of Samuel.

In those days, Saul went down to the desert of Ziph with three thousand picked men of Israel, to search for David in the desert of Ziph. So David and Abishai went among Saul's soldiers by night and found Saul lying asleep within the barricade, with his spear thrust into the ground at his head and Abner and his men sleeping around him. Abishai whispered to David: "God has delivered your enemy into your grasp this day. Let me nail him to the ground with one thrust of the spear; I will not need a second thrust!" But David said to Abishai, "Do not harm him, for who can lay hands on the LORD's anointed and remain unpunished?" So David took the spear and the water jug from their place at Saul's head, and they got away without anyone's seeing or knowing or awakening. All remained asleep, because the LORD had put them into a deep slumber.

Going across to an opposite slope, David stood on a remote hilltop at a great distance from Abner, son of Ner, and the troops. He said: "Here is the king's spear. Let an attendant come over to get it. The LORD will reward each man for his justice and faithfulness. Today, though the LORD delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the LORD's anointed."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

„The Lord is kind and merciful.“

READING 2

1 COR 15:45-49

A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters:
It is written, The first man, Adam, became a living being, the last Adam a life-giving spirit.
But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual.
The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven.

As was the earthly one, so also are the earthly, and as is the heavenly one, so also are the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

LK 6:27-38

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory be to You, Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. "Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Some people wonder about GOD's love. They ask, "If GOD loves us, why do GOOD people suffer?" Or they might voice the question, "How can GOD love those who are so hateful that they go out and hurt whomever they can?" Part of the answer to those questions come from what GOD's love is all about. GOD loves unconditionally. GOD loves both sinners and saints. GOD is willing to give everyone chances to experience divine love and respond to that love. Yes, people will have to answer for the way they have responded to GOD's love.
